Coronavirus update – March and April events postponed

The final six events King's Lynn Festival had planned for the rest of this month and during April have been postponed due to the current Coronavirus situation.

The Festival team is working hard to rearrange them to dates much later in the year, in which case tickets bought so far will remain valid.

The Festival board is continually monitoring the situation regarding the 70th King's Lynn Festival in July.

The English National Opera's Film of The Mikado has already been moved from Friday, March 27 to October 15 at 1pm. As and when the other events are re-scheduled the changes will be on the Festival's website, www.kingslynnfestival.org.uk and on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram.

If refunds are requested at this stage, please contact the Box Office on 01553 764864.

The events affected are: The Mikado film on March 27 at 1pm which has been rearranged to October 15; The Lucky Dog Picturehouse Silent Film With Music, Piccadilly, 7.30pm on March 27; Coffee Concert with Benson Wilson and Lucy Colquhoun on April 3; Coffee
