

PRESS RELEASE

30 January 2023

SPRING SERIES OF COFFEE CONCERTS AT KING'S LYNN TOWN HALL

King's Lynn Festival supporters can soon enjoy a taste of the coffee concerts which are a very popular feature of the festival's year-round activity.

A series of three spring concerts will be staged in Lynn Town Hall in the coming months to whet the appetite of classical music lovers. Coffee and cake, included in the ticket price, will be available prior to the hour-long concerts.

Cellist Maxim Calver will be joined by pianist Kumi Matsuo on Friday 3 February at 11am when they will play works by Schumann and Beethoven. Pupils from the internationally renowned Yehudi Menuhin School Ensemble will present a programme of music by Haydn, Schumann and Beethoven in a concert which will showcase rising stars of the classical music world on Friday March 17 at 11am. The final concert of the Spring series on Friday 28 April features pianist Noah Zhou performing Mussorgsky's Pictures at an Exhibition in its original version for solo piano.

Tickets for each coffee concert cost £15 (under 25's 50% off) and are available via www.kingslynnfestival.org.uk or via the Corn Exchange box office on 01553 764864.

ENDS

Notes to editors

For interviews and more information please contact Claire Bowdler, Marketing Manager – claire@kingslynnfestival.org.uk / 07801 538053

About

King's Lynn Festival was founded in 1951 and continues to provide high-quality performances of classical music, recitals, choral performances, jazz, folk, talks, walks, exhibitions and films. The Festival features internationally renowned performers and uses beautiful historic venues around the town, including England's largest surviving Medieval Guildhall. The Festival's ongoing success has helped establish King's Lynn as a Festival Town, and is especially known for bringing new compositions to audiences as part of its broad programme of music and arts.